WHY: Science Hack Days have been held 46 times and in 17 different countries but NEVER in Washington, DC. This is an incredible city, with civic minded people and creative juices, combine these and we expect to see incredible results!

WHAT: This event is free and open to the public. Bring yourself, an idea and tools and prepare to be inspired by lightning talks in the morning followed by prototyping in self-organizing teams for 48 hours. Meals are provided both days.

---

WHERE: The Wilson Center, Ronald Reagan Building, 1300 Pennsylvania Ave, Washington DC 20004

WHEN: Saturday May 16th 9:00 am – Sunday May 17th 4:00 pm
